BOMB-THROWER ADDS DETAILS TO

Tells Policeman-Nurse How He Made Deadly Missile to Kill Cops.

Belig Silverstein, the anaemic, sunkenchested little Anarchist who has been intended to kill a lot of police in Union Square last Saturday a week ago, has added to his confession. He has told not only of making the bomb, but he also declares he knows Alexlander Berkman, the Anarchist leader, though the latter says he never saw Silverstein.

berkman, with the notorious Emma Goldman, is recognized as the leader of the "Beds," but after Berkman's arrest following the bomb explosion be was taken to Silverstein's bedside in Bellevue Hospital. There he said: "I don't know this man. I never saw him before. He may have heard me speak, and he may have read my articles. But I don't know him."

Berkman then told of the great numbers of men who listened to him speak and who read his writings in Mother Earth, the publication which he and Emma Goldman run, and added: 'It is impossible for me to know them

How He Made Bomb.

While Silverstein has tossed about on narrow cot in Bellevue Hospital, minus an arm and almost blind, one attendant has been most kind to him. This attendant-a man-was though to be a new nurse in the hospital. He wasn't an attendant at all, but a policeman, and Nannie Barrow Waddingham, of No to him Silvenstein made the confession 500 West One Hundred and Forty-third which is to-day in the hands of Com- street, who died on Saturday of maligmissioner Bingham.
